Busan: Gateway to Asia

PNU is located in northern Busan, Korea's second-largest metro area. The city is famous for its mountains, beaches, and natural hot springs, which have helped Busan become a regional leader in tourism and culture (The New York Times recently named Busan one of the "52 Places to Go in 2017"). The port city also hosts the Busan International Film Festival (known as BIFF), Asia's most renowned and prestigious. That's why it's called 'Dynamic Busan'!
